REMEMBER this week

It's true. The devil is a powerful enemy. Every time we live in our identity as God's children and seek to live out his purpose for our lives – to advance God's kingdom of grace and forgiveness in this world - we will be involved in a dangerous battle. But in the midst of that battle know this truth: The devil is a defeated enemy. Christ has overcome and given you the final victory.

VERSE of the week

"Our Father...
Deliver us from the evil one."

Matthew 6:13b

table GRACE

God, thank you for the good things
you give us.

Also do good things in us and through us.

Amen.

THOUGHT for the week

I often laugh at Satan, and there is nothing that makes him so angry as when I attack him to his face, and tell him that through Christ I am more than a match for him.

– Martin Luther

1 lets SHARE

1. Share your highs and lows?
2. What do you think of when you think about evil?
3. How do you see evil at work in the world today?
4. What do you think of the saying, 'Nice guys finish last', do you think it's true?
5. In the Lord's prayer we ask God to protect us from evil and also 'the evil one'. Share when you have felt God's protection.
6. Can you think of a time God used you to help someone through a bad experience?
7. Jesus was a 'nice guy' who defeated the devil and overcame evil. How does he help you to do the same?
