REMEMBER this week

When the Church fails, Christ does not.
When the Church hurts, Christ does not.
When the Church is unmoved, Christ is not.
When the Church is absent, Christ is not.
Scandal may rock the Church,
bring the good news into disrepute,
or even close the doors for Gospel work but it will never frustrate Christ's unchanging purpose or his mighty power to build a people through whom he is at work to bring justice, love, mercy and healing to the world.

table GRACE

Bless the food before us
The family beside us
And the love between us
Amen.

VERSE of the week

I myself will tend my sheep
and have them lie down, declares the Sovereign Lord.
I will search for the lost and bring back the strays.
I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice.

Ezekiel 34:15-16

THOUGHT for the week

"We expect that God, in his omnipotence, will defeat injustice, evil, sin and suffering with a triumphant divine victory. Instead, God shows us a humble victory that in human terms seems to be a failure. And we can say this:
God wins in failure."

— Pope Francis

Living Out Loud

1 lets SHARE

1. Share your highs and lows?
2. Have you ever bought one of those 'too good to be true' items from the TV? Did it live up to your expectations or not? Share.
3. Talk about a time you were really disappointed. What happened?
4. Has anyone ever suprised you by doing something unexpectedly nice? What did they do and how did that make you feel?
5. What do you think is the best thing about church? What would you change?
6. Jesus asked his disciples to 'love one another'. How do you show love to others?
